09.00-09.15 Welcome remarks by the host, Minister Ploumen

Introductory remarks by the Co-Chairs

09.15-10.50 1. Contributing to implementation of the post-2015 development agenda

Steering Committee members are invited to discuss how the Global Partnership for Effective Development Co-operation may contribute to the implementation of the post-2015 development agenda, based on the following guiding questions:

- What is the status of the UN relevant 2015 negotiations, what are the implications of the UN Secretary General's synthesis report and the preparations for the Financing for Development conference for the Global Partnership?
- In what substantive way can the Global Partnership contribute to the UN process, namely the implementation of the post-2015 Framework, the Financing for Development Conference and its follow-up and the ECOSOC Development Cooperation Forum?
- What deliverables should the Global Partnership provide for the Addis Ababa Financing for Development conference in July 2015? And for the UN summit in September 2015?
- How can the Brussels workshop (21-22 January 2015) advance the Global Partnership's plans?

Brief pitches followed by interactive discussion.

Desired outputs: Agreement on the key deliverables and avenues for the Global Partnership's contribution to UN processes – particularly the Financing for Development Conference and the UN 2015 summit. A sharpened mutual understanding of the Global Partnership's added value in the post-2015 framework.
