

	Indicator	Options
Ownership & Results of development cooperation	1 Development cooperation is focused on results that meet developing countries' priorities.	Alignment in project design to demand and/or national policy priorities. (Dev coop. plans and designs with specific link to partner countries dev priorities)
	6 Aid is on budgets which are subject to parliamentary scrutiny	Cooperation initiatives agreed in programmes emerged from institutionalized joint mechanisms .
	9 Developing countries' systems are strengthened and used	Further discussion required about the use of country systems for financial cooperation.
	10 Aid is untied	Further discussion is required
Inclusive development partnerships	2 Civil society operates within an environment that maximizes its engagement in and contribution to development	Not discussed because of the nature of the dimension measured by the GPEDC refers to the overall planning process at the country level.
	3 Engagement and contribution of the private sector to development
	8 Gender equality and women's empowerment
Transparency and accountability for development results	4 Information on development co-operation is publicly available	Publication of data on a timely, open and systematic way (frequency proposed: annual publication)
	5 Development co-operation is more predictable	% of cooperation initiatives or budget covered by indicative multiannual programmes
	7 Mutual accountability among development cooperation actors is strengthened through inclusive	% of countries that undertake inclusive mutual assessment of progress and benefits in implementing agreed commitments.

AMEXCID

AGENCIA MEXICANA
DE COOPERACIÓN INTERNACIONAL
PARA EL DESARROLLO

Compartir lo mejor de México para enfrentar retos globales y crecer juntos