for Effective Development
Co-operation

Renewing the Global Partnership Mandate

The Global Partnership Mandate

Endorsed in 2012

- | Ensure accountability for implementing Busan commitments
- | Facilitate knowledge exchange and sharing of lessons learned
- | Support implementation of Busan commitments at country level
- | Maintain political momentum for effective development co-operation

Update planned in 2015 to take account of post-MDG context

The Global Partnership

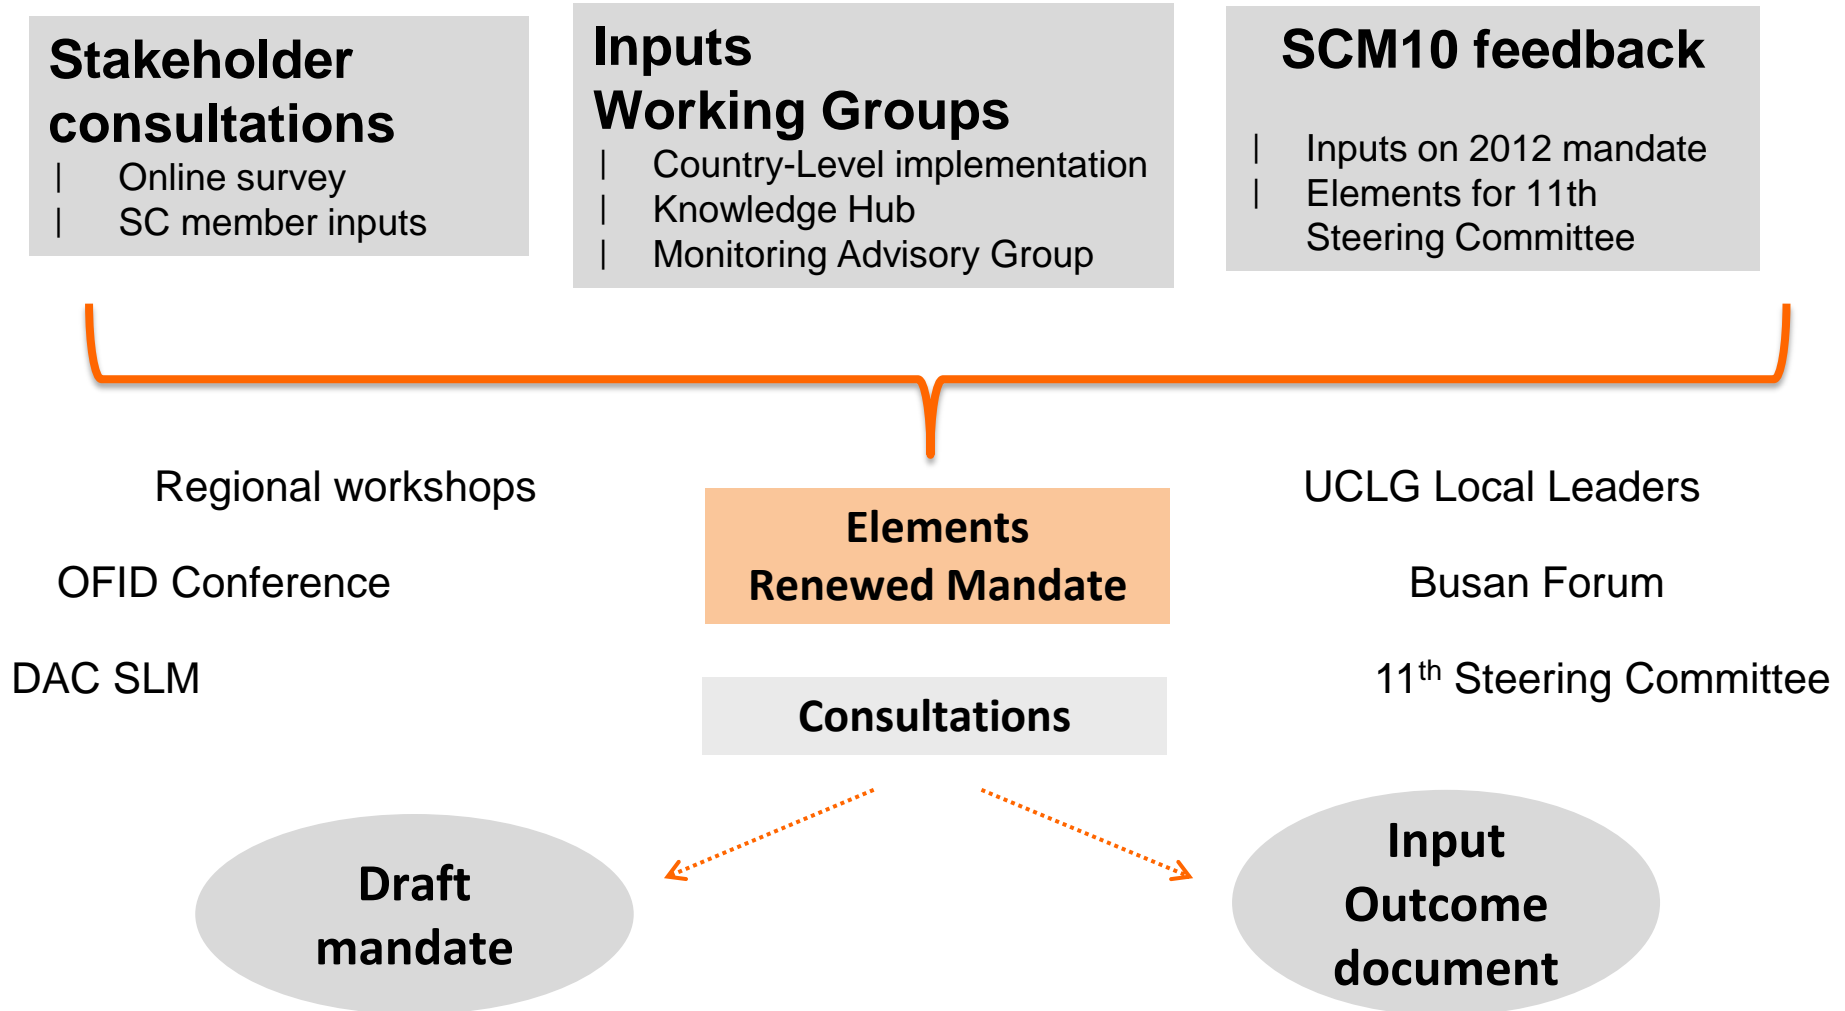

Opportunities & Challenges

- | Effective development cooperation: Means of implementation for SDGs
- | Global Partnership: Designated source of data for FfD & SDG follow-up
 - Monitor effective development co-operation & multi-stakeholder partnerships
- | Diversity of partners & level of engagement in monitoring higher than ever
- | BUT: Are we losing momentum?

Challenges to drive meaningful changes and ascertain its place in the global development architecture

Revisiting Global Partnership Working Arrangements

Renewing focus on evidence and implementation

- | HLMs every four years, interspersed with High Level Segment in margins of HoS-level HLPF
- | Provide data & and evidence to FFDF, DCF and HLPF
- | Annual technical exchanges similar to Busan Global Partnership Forum
- | Specialized policy dialogues among “communities of interest”

- Do you agree with the proposed elements for a renewed mandate?
 - Mutual accountability: Sustaining commitments
 - Mutual benefit: Look at how to expand scope by using development cooperation to catalyse PPPs and engage private sector and foundations
 - Mutual learning: Learning from different actors and their modalities
 - Leaving no one behind: Reaching the poorest everywhere
 - Overall focus on data and evidence: Bring robust country level information to global SDG and FfD Follow-up and Review
- Are there other elements you would like to propose?
- Do you agree with the proposed working arrangements?
