BUILDING INCLUSIVE PARTNERSHIPS – CIVIL SOCIETY
Civil Society Continuing Campaign for Effective Development	CSO Partnership for Development Effectiveness	This initiative aims to advance international standards enabling the environment for civil society organizations (CSOs) involvement in multi-stakeholder policy dialogue. Over the next years, it will aim to deliver improved CSO participation in 7 regional and 50 country development policy arenas and achieve policy gains in translating effective development co-operation and CSO positions on private sector accountability, south-south cooperation, peace and security in the particular context of these regions and countries.	www.csopartnership.org	Roberto Pinauin: rpinauin@iboninternational.org

Advancing the CSO Enabling Environment & CSO Development Effectiveness	Task Team on CSO Development Effectiveness and Enabling Environment	This initiative aims to help refine Indicator Two of the GPEDC Monitoring Framework (as appropriate); produce a stock-take of the 3 rd round of GPEDC Indicator Two monitoring; further develop guidance on CSO enabling environment and CSO development effectiveness; and raise awareness and develop capacity to support country level multi-stakeholder dialogue in relation to Indicator Two and development effectiveness principles more broadly.	www.taskteamcso.com	Jacqueline Wood (Task Team Secretariat): woodjacqueline@hotmail.com David Wubs-Mrozewicz (Task Team Secretariat Manager): wubs@iss.nl
DataShift	CIVICUS, World Alliance for Citizen Participation	The DataShift initiative is helping civil society produce and analyse data, especially citizen-generated data, to drive sustainable development. It does this by building capacity, powering campaigns and improving the monitoring of government, resulting in better accountability, policies and services. The initiative is currently being implemented primarily via CIVICUS' capacity development activities.	www.thedatashift.org	Jack Cornforth: jack.cornforth@civicus.org
Youth Power: Youth-led, data-driven accountability and governance	Restless Development	A global campaign led by young people to hold their governments to account for their promise to achieve the SDGs by 2030. Youth Power has 4 elements including local and national campaigns, global mobilisation, youth-led datadriven accountability programmes, high-level advocacy.	www.restlessdevelopment.org/youthpower	Rachel Litster: rach@restlessdevelopment.org

BUILDING INCLUSIVE PARTNERSHIPS – PRIVATE SECTOR

Business Partnership Action: Unleashing the power of Business for the SDGs	The Partnering Initiative	The Business Partnership Action will work with governments, donors, international non-governmental organizations and Global Partnerships to support the development of new and existing partnership catalyzing platforms or hubs in-country that can engage business as a partner for the SDGs. It will also develop "The Partnering Academy", a major new initiative to build up the specialist skills and competencies that all sectors require to be able to collaborate effectively across sectors. BUILDING INCLUSIVE PARTNERSHIPS – MULTI-STAKEHOLDER PARTNERSHIPS

Promoting Effective Partnering (PEP)	Collective Leadership Institute, Partnership Brokers Association, Partnerships in Practice, Partnerships Resource Centre, The Partnering Initiative	The SDGs require collaborative approaches to generate new thinking and practices. Such partnerships can be challenging. PEP's aim is to create a vibrant platform offering opportunities to learn from each other's experience or to seek support when things are not going according to plan. PEP developed an online facility with free resources, guiding questions and performance indicators for those new to partnering and those looking to improve their partnering efforts.	www.effectivepartnering.org	Marieke de Wal: info@effectivepartnering.org
Social Dialogue in Development	Trade Union Development Cooperation Network	The Social Dialogue in Development is aimed at putting forward the benefits and use of social dialogue as an instrument to contribute to the SDGs, on the basis of the Global Partnership principles and commitments. It will undertake specific research and produce a yearly report on specific themes related to social dialogue for development. The themes will be discussed in specific meetings held at least once a year.	www.ituc-csi.org/development-cooperation	Diego Lopez Gonzales: Diego.Lopez-Gonzalez@ituc-csi.org

Together for 2030: Partnering to Deliver a Sustainable Future for All	Every Woman Every Child initiative; the Global Partnership for Education (GPE); Sanitation and Water for All; Scaling Up Nutrition (SUN); Zero Hunger Challenge	The Every Woman Every Child initiative, the Global Partnership for Education (GPE) , Sanitation and Water for All , Scaling Up Nutrition (SUN) and Zero Hunger Challenge collaborate to catalyze transformations in the way stakeholders work together – across communities and sectors – to deliver on their commitments. These core partners are committed to continue working together to facilitate a culture of effective, principled partnerships that support country-level implementation of the SDGs, generating lessons learned and engaging stakeholders across sectors and communities for impact. CONDUCTING TRANSPARENT AND RESPONSIBLE DEVELOPMENT CO-OPERATION

Additional efforts on International Aid Transparency Initiative	International Aid Transparency Initiative	This initiative was established in 2008 to accelerate efforts to increase transparency of development co-operation and financing for development and to implement a common open standard for electronic publication of information on development resources. With the standard now in place and widely used, IATI works to ensure data quality is continually improved. The highest priority for the initiative over the next year will be to work towards its mission for IATI data to be routinely used, particularly at country level, to help achieve sustainable development. IATI's new Data Use Task Force will be working to implement the initiative's data use strategy and take the steps necessary to strengthen the technical infrastructure in order to make this possible.	www.aidtransparency.net	info@iatistandard.org Annelise Parr: Annelise.Parr@undp.org Carolyn Culey: Carolyn.Culey@devinit.org

MOBILISING FLOWS BEYOND OFFICIAL DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANCE

Active support to “Tax Inspectors Without Borders”	OECD Task Force on Tax and Development	This partnership was created in 2015 to provide expert tax auditors for building audit capacity in developing countries. Going forward, it will increase deployments of experts (target of 100 by 2020), broaden work to support South-South co-operation and increase the pool of experts.	www.tiwb.org	Radha Kulkarni (UNDP): radha.kulkarni@undp.org Melanie Mathis (OECD): melanie.mathis@tiwb.org
Endorsement of the “Principles for International Engagement in Supporting Developing Countries in Revenue Matters”	OECD Task Force on Tax and Development	Created in 2014, this initiative focused on the adoption of principles to ensure that, in order for tax reforms to be successful, support programmes are customized to fit the economic, structural, cultural, and political conditions in a country. After HLM2, this initiative will move into a new phase in which further guidance on best practice in implementing the principles will be developed, this will start by looking at the principle on whole of government approaches.		OECD: taxanddevelopment@oecd.org
Strengthening comparable tax statistical indicators	OECD and regional organisations	This initiative supports the construction of comparable revenue statistics in interested countries in Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Caribbean, and the Pacific. Over the next two years, it will seek to expand coverage of all three of the regional publications (Revenue Statistics in Africa, Revenue Statistics in Asian Countries and Revenue Statistics in Latin America and the Caribbean) in collaboration with regional partners and the financial support from the European Union while maintaining the quality, consistency and detail of the datasets. The initiative will also work to improve the dissemination and accessibility of the publication, data and findings, particularly through online user-friendly tools.		OECD: taxandDevelopment@oecd.org Michelle (OECD): michelle.harding@oecd.org
Tax Administration Diagnostic Assessment Tool (TADAT)	International Monetary Fund, TADAT Steering Committee and Belgium	An assessment tool to provide a framework for assessing the strengths and weaknesses of a country’s tax administration.	www.tadat.org	secretariat@tadat.org Justin Zake: jzake@imf.org Hironori Shoji: hshoji@imf.org

PROMOTING DEVELOPMENT IN SITUATIONS OF CONFLICT AND FRAGILITY

New Deal for Engagement in Fragile States	International Dialogue for Peacebuilding and State building	An agreement between fragile and conflict-affected states, development partners, and civil society to improve the current development policy and practice in fragile and conflict-affected states.		Peter van Sluijs: Peter.van.Sluijs@cordaid.nl Kathryn Nwajiaku: Kathryn.nwajiaku@pbsdialogue.org
Working Group on Good Practice Principles for Value Chain Development in FCS	International Finance Corporation IFC, Clingendael Institute, Spark, Shell	This initiative aims to develop a conflict-relevant tool for accelerating value chain development and integrating local SMEs. The effort will entail developing, piloting, evaluating, refining and dissemination of practical tools for practitioners, focused on agribusiness and extractives investment in fragile and conflict-affected situation.		valuechainFCS@ifc.org Yannick du Pont: y.du.pont@spark-online.org Michael Botzung (IFC): mbotzung2@ifc.org
Study of donor support in large-scale refugee and IDP movements	OECD Temporary Working Group on Refugees and Migrants	This GPI will study donor support and engagement in situations of forced displacement under the guidance of the OECD Development Co-operation Directorate (DCD). The study will identify concrete examples of challenges, solutions and lessons learned when working through multi-stakeholder partnerships for development in contexts of forced displacement. The study will incorporate three case studies to ensure coverage of a range of forced displacement situations. The three proposed case studies address both new and protracted caseloads, a geographical spread of countries from Africa, the Middle East and Asia, and include one conflict or post-conflict state. It will also support an enabling environment for more co-ordinated and effective development cooperation in countries affected by forced displacement. Including learning processes and streamlining donor engagement can avoid fragmentation and contribute to coherent policy formulation, enhanced flexibility and adaptive programming.		Brennda Killen: Brenda.killen@oecd.org
