Second High-Level Meeting of the Global Partnership: Towards Inclusive and Accelerated Implementation of the 2030 Agenda

28 November–1 December 2016, Nairobi, Kenya

Preparatory days

The Second High-Level Meeting (HLM2) will be preceded by two preparatory days (28–29 November, 2016), providing the opportunity for a range of stakeholders to meet in advance of the High-level Ministerial segment.

A Workshop to consider findings from the Global Partnership's second monitoring round.

A series of Forums for:

Civil Society

Youth

Foundations

Parliamentarians

Women

Private Sector

Local Government

High-level ministerial segment

The two-day high-level meeting (30 November–1 December 2016) will offer a unique platform for heads of state, ministers, heads of major international organisations and leaders from civil society, the private sector, foundations, local government and parliaments to showcase successes and identify innovative approaches.

The meeting will include seven plenary sessions, parallel discussions on bottlenecks, a series of side events, and marketplace stalls for showcasing successful innovation, implementation, and sharing knowledge.

Special focus on empowering women and youth

Accelerated efforts are needed by all partners to unleash the power of youth and women as dynamic contributors to society. The Government of Kenya will lead special focus discussions on Economic empowerment of women and youth – inclusivity and mainstreaming for effective and accelerated development at the HLM2.

Agenda

Day 1 – 30 November 2016

07.30-08.30	SIDE EVENTS
08.30-09.30	OPENING CEREMONY
09.30-11.00	PLENARY SESSION: Taking Stock: Progress and challenges for effective development The Global Partnership was established to improve the effectiveness of development co-operation, ensure accountability for implementing Busan commitments, facilitate knowledge exchange and support country level implementation. Five years on from Busan, it's time for an honest reflection on progress, highlighting achievements and identifying bottlenecks, and to agree on what we need to achieve in the next 15 years: political, institutional and technical. This session should successfully set the tone for the evolution and growth of the Global Partnership as a multi-stakeholder platform.	09.30-10.15 Amphitheatre Discussion <hr/> 10.15-11.00 Amphitheatre Discussion
11.00-11.30	Morning Break
11.30-13.00	PLENARY SESSION: Moving forward: The Global Partnership's contribution to realising the 2030 agenda An ambitious and universal 2030 Agenda calls for an equally ambitious and comprehensive response from all development actors. It will require strong political leadership, a revitalised Global Partnership and redoubled efforts by all development actors to improve the quality, effectiveness and impact of their co-operation. This plenary will highlight what different actors will do to improve their co-operation and thereby contribute to achieving the SDGs. It will also emphasise the added value that a revitalized Global Partnership will play in supporting them to do so.	11.30-12.15 Amphitheatre Discussion <hr/> 12.15-13.00 Amphitheatre Discussion

16.30-17.00	Afternoon Break
17.00-18.30	PLENARY SESSION: The private sector's contribution to sustainable development The resources required to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals are significantly larger than current flows of development cooperation. Increasing investment in sustainable development from billions to trillions will require the leadership of the private sector. A growing number of leaders within the business community have already recognized that the potential returns on investment in new, green and collaborative business models are vast. Early adopters will be able to create new markets, and command market share. This plenary will identify the incentives for doing business in new ways, showcase examples of successful business investments, consider enabling factors, and agree how to unleash the power of business as a driver of sustainable development	17.00-17.45 Amphitheatre Discussion
