

Agenda

22nd Meeting of the GPEDC Steering Committee

Wednesday, 15 December and Thursday, 16 December 2021
1pm to 4 pm CET

Wednesday, 15 December 2021

1:00 – 3:00 pm Session I: Putting Effectiveness into Practice: The Political Strategy for the GPEDC 2022 High-level meeting

Chair: Switzerland

Objective: Building on consultations with members, discuss and agree on how to translate the vision to put effectiveness into practice at country level to deliver on the 2030 Agenda and leave no one behind into a new narrative on effectiveness for all stakeholders, captured in a concise, action-oriented outcome document, as well as into an appealing programme that attracts politicians and other senior development leaders. Committee members will discuss how progress in the work programme's strategic priorities including across Action Areas, Action Dialogues and related thematic proposals (including e.g. climate action) can contribute to delivering this outcome.

Background document: GPEDC HLM Roadmap (Paris I)

3:00 – 4:00 pm Session II: Responding to Review Recommendations in run up to the HLM

Chair: Bangladesh

Objective: Reflecting on the recommendations from the independent review process and discussing Co-Chairs' proposals to improve the Partnership's implementation of its mandate and its ways of working to foster political engagement in the run up to the HLM.

Background document: GPEDC review report and draft Co-chairs' Response to the 2021 GPEDC Review

Thursday, 16 December 2021

1:00 – 2:45 pm Session III: The Global Partnership monitoring reform: looking at key elements of a new monitoring proposal for the GPEDC HLM 2022

Chair: Non-Executive Co-Chair

Objective: Inviting Steering Committee members to discuss key elements of the revised monitoring framework and process, based on the proposal by Co-chairs, which was tested with stakeholders during the recent consultation process. There will be a particular focus on the proposal for changes to the monitoring process, including implications of these changes for the resourcing, stakeholder mobilisation, and partnership arrangement to implement the exercise successfully. It will also outline the roadmap to the GPEDC HLM 2022 with respect to the monitoring reform, and additional work to prepare for the resumption of the monitoring exercise following the HLM.

Background document: monitoring session background document [including annex with details on the "open waves" approach to the monitoring process]

2:45 – 3:45pm Session IV: The Road to the 2022 GPEDC High-Level Meeting

Chair: Democratic Republic of Congo

Objective: Building on discussions at the Busan Global Partnership Forum in November, agree on how Steering Committee members lead preparations to generate political buy-in within and across constituencies on the "Road to the 2022 GPEDC HLM" through specific engagement, communication and outreach efforts. This session will include the presentation of preliminary logistical information and promotional material by the host/organising team.

Background document: 2022 GPEDC HLM Roadmap (Part II) and relevant online content.

Room document: Update on funding the JST and HLM3

3:45 – 4:00pm Closing

Objective: Co-chairs to summarise and share concluding remarks