

ABOUT THE SUMMIT: FACING GLOBAL CHALLENGES TOGETHER

- Taking place at the midpoint of Agenda 2030, the Summit will put a spotlight on how better co-operation strengthens trust and transforms the way we work together.
- In a new era of global challenges – the pandemic, a deepening climate emergency, and many economic shocks – we must charter sustainable pathways for a just recovery across sectors and geographies.
- Effective partnering is a compass and catalyst for using local, national and global resources in the best possible way for the fastest and most sustainable impact as we look to achieve the SDGs.
- All co-operation partners need to balance ongoing short-term pressures with delivering on the vision for long-term well-being for the people and planet.

STRENGTHENING TRUST AT COUNTRY LEVEL

- Effective co-operation that is country owned, focused on results, involves all type of partners, and is transparent and accountable, strengthens trust that leads to impactful partnerships and better results in countries.
- Only through actions based on country priorities can we strengthen national systems and deliver sustainable development for all.
- Harnessing the power of partnerships is key to deliver results. Governments, parliamentarians, civil society, the private sector and others – all play a distinct and crucial role in building resilient communities and targeting those most in need.

WHO WILL ATTEND?

Ministers and decision-makers on development co-operation policies and programs, civil society leaders, CEOs of the private sector, and other key actors from trade unions, foundations, multilateral development banks, local and regional governments, parliamentarians, and academia.
