FOCUS SESSION:
Promoting Better Triangular Co-operation: Where Have We Got to Since Busan and Where to Next After 2015?
Wednesday 8:00-9:15, Room 6

Objectives:
This focus session will provide a forum for all constituencies in the Global Partnership to:

i) Take stock of progress made on promoting better triangular co-operation since Busan and learn about actions implemented since a Policy Dialogue event on Triangular Co-operation in Lisbon in May 2013.

ii) Exchange views on how triangular co-operation can be a tool for achieving sustainable development, including in the framework of the post-2015 development agenda.

Session Format:

Opening remarks

- Moderator: Jon Lomøy, Director for Development Co-operation, OECD
- Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs, Japan

Panel discussion

Panellists:
- Provider of development co-operation: Japan, represented by Mr. Hiroshi Kato, Vice-President of Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)
- Pivotal country: Colombia (name to be confirmed)
- Beneficiary country: to be determined
- International organisation: the United Nations, represented by Ms. Mami Sakurai, Assistant Director for Partnership and Triangular Co-operation, UN Office for South-South Co-operation

Questions and answers

- Discussion based on questions from the audience

Closing remarks

- Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs, Colombia (to be confirmed)

* Simultaneous English-Spanish interpretation will be provided during this focus session.
Background:

Triangular co-operation has been receiving increased attention in recent years, including as part of international processes aimed at improving the effectiveness of development co-operation.

Triangular co-operation builds on the complementary strengths of different actors to bring innovative and flexible solutions to address development challenges. It can arise from a combination of South-South and North-South Co-operation, creating coalitions around the pursuit of shared development goals.

In this sense, triangular co-operation can be a tool for promoting structural changes and sustainable development. It can contribute to the implementation of the post-2015 development agenda, which will cover a set of universal goals integrating the environmental, social and economic dimensions of development.

The Busan Partnership agreement (2011) proposed a number of actions relating to triangular co-operation, including broadening support, scaling-up and strengthening capacity to engage effectively in triangular co-operation. The First High-Level Meeting of the Global Partnership for Effective Development Co-operation provides a timely opportunity to take stock of progress made since Busan in promoting better triangular co-operation and to chart the way forward.

Related Links:

- UN Office for South-South Co-operation webpage: http://ssc.undp.org/content/ssc.html

Organisers:

- Mozambique – Ministry of Planning and Development
- Colombia – Colombian Presidential Agency of International Cooperation (APC-Colombia)
- Japan – Japan International Co-operation Agency (JICA)
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)

Contacts:

- Ms Hanifa Ibrahimo, Mozambique: hibrahimo@mpd.gov.mz
- Ms Claudia Vasquez: mariavasquez@apccolombia.gov.co
- Mr Masato Tokuda: Tokuda.Masato@jica.go.jp
- Ms Talita Yamashiro Fordelone: Talita.YamashiroFordelone@oecd.org