BAPA+40 Side Event Organized by the BRICS Policy Center, DCD-OECD, RIS and DIE

Engaging Private Actors to Achieve the 2030 Agenda: Learning from South-South and Triangular Cooperation PROGRAM

This side event will bring together participants from the BAPA+40 Conference, including development co-operation partners, private partners, development practitioners, regional and international organizations, as well as civil society, trade unions, institutional philanthropy, think tanks and academia.

18:00 – 19:45 – Interactive Roundtable Debate

18:00 – 18:45 – Part I: Engaging the Private Sector through South-South and Triangular Co-operation:

This roundtable is organized around two guiding questions: What principles guide development partners when promoting PSE through development co-operation? What approaches and instruments are being used by South-South Cooperation Partners for supporting PSE through development co-operation?

18:45 – 19:45 – Part II: Multi-stakeholder partnerships: learning from South-South Cooperation Partners

The second part of the evening is organized around three guiding questions: How can SSC and TrC leverage the comparative advantages of each partner to achieve the SDGs? How can be ensured that multi-stakeholder partnerships align to national development priorities and reach those furthest behind? How can the development impact of SSC led multi-stakeholder partnerships be assessed?

19:45 – 21:00 - Cocktail
